

Understanding Behavioral Styles for Sales

Communicate with any client to establish a successful sales relationship

ON-LINE | SELF PACED COURSE

The new client. The demanding client. The “buddy” client who monopolizes all your time. Different people, different behaviors, same challenge: How do you turn this into a productive sales relationship?

The answer is understanding behavioral styles. Everyone’s personal behavioral style – yours and your clients’ – is revealed in their interaction with others. Learning to recognize various styles quickly and adjusting your own behavior effectively is the focus of this course.

You’ll start by gaining valuable insight into your own behavioral style. Then, you’ll learn a system that helps you recognize and categorize the different styles of behavior you observe in others. As you use this knowledge, you will begin to appreciate how personal styles affect your client interactions and learn to react appropriately.

Understanding Behavioral Styles for Sales will teach you to build dynamic, fruitful sales relationships more quickly and easily – even with “demanding” clients!

These insights and techniques are also helpful when managing relationships outside of the workplace.

[COURSE OVERVIEW]

The eleven-lesson course can be taken at your own pace; average completion time is approximately two hours. Interactive graphics, audio, text, animation, quizzes and practical application exercises make every lesson so engaging and entertaining, you will be astonished at how much you’ve learned!
